

Wisconsin Symposium on Feminist Biology

Friday, October 5, 2018

The Center for Research on Gender and Women at the University of Wisconsin-Madison is pleased to announce the 3rd Biennial Wisconsin Symposium on Feminist Biology to deliberately examine creating new research, new topics, new methods, new theories that remove the gender bias in biological research.

Join us

Friday, October 5, 2018

as we consider how to uncover and reverse gender bias in biology

Keynote speakers:

Daphna Joel

Professor, Tel Aviv University

“Rethinking Sex, Brain, and Gender:
From Dimorphism to Mosaic”

Rebecca Calisi Rodríguez

Assistant Professor, University of California, Davis

“The Path is Made by Walking:
Diverse Paths to Science Fuel Creativity and Help Communities”

Open to faculty from all disciplines, researchers, and graduate students!

For complete conference details go to:

<https://crgw.gws.wisc.edu/wisconsin-symposium-on-feminist-biology/>

Made possible through the Gertraude Wittig Endowment
Co-sponsored by the Department of Psychology
Supported, in part, by the University Lectures Committee and The Women in Science and Engineering Leadership Institute
For more information call 263-2053, or email crgw@lets.wisc.edu
crgw.gws.wisc.edu

CENTER FOR RESEARCH
ON GENDER & WOMEN

