Wednesday, October 24

3:30 pm

1313 Sterling Hall

Reception to follow

Dr. Patricia Morris

Adjunct Professorial Lecturer

School of International Service, American University

“Preparing for a Career in International Development as a Gender Specialist”

In this talk, Dr. Morris will provide advice on how students who are interested in a career as a gender specialist in international relief and development work should prepare. She will begin her talk with a comparison of how the field and recruitment for the field has changed in the past 25 years. She will also review the seven things any aspiring gender specialist should focus on to enter and grow their career. The talk will conclude with a question and answer period with Dr. Morris.

Wheelchair accessible, free, and open to the public. For ASL interpretation or other accessibility requests, please contact dazeps@wisc.edu by October 12th.

Co-sponsored by the 4W Initiative, International Studies, and Sociology.
