"How Your Generic Baby
Acquires Gender:
A Dynamic Systems Approach"

Free and open to the public

A description of a dynamic systems approach to understanding gender in early child development in the hope that it is powerful enough to finally lay nature vs. nurture to rest.

Made possible through the Gertraude Wittig Endowment

Co-sponsored by the Departments of Anthropology,
Medical History and Bioethics, and the Women in Science and Engineering Leadership Institute

Supported, in part, by the University Lectures Committee

Sponsored by the
